
DUEL ACROSS THE MULTIVERSE

Setup :

Banned cards: Vision Leadership, Hawkeye Leadership, Star Lord Neutral, Spider Man (Peter Parker) Neutral.

Setup: Play with heroes who share the same trait. Players can play with the affinity of their choice AND even with the same affinity. For all cards integrated into at least two decks, none of them can be present in duplicate.

Rules: The game is played as usual except that each time a minion is killed, the player who killed him receives 1 Victory point; each time an Elite minion is killed, the player receives 2 points and each time a villain stage is killed, the player receives (Level 1: 3 points, Level 2: 5 points, Level 3: 7points). As soon as one of the players has no more life points, the fight ends and the players can move on to the next fight. In this case only, if there is a tie between the players in the number of points won during the game, the players keep the number of points won during the game by the player who has obtained the least.

The battles are done in a random order in order to represent the unmastered jumps in the multiverse, except the last battle against Kang in fight n°5 that is mandatory.
